Enjoy a night of good company and fine food. Project MUSE - Greek Food After Mousaka : Cookbooks ... Specifically, I argue that Cretan cookbook authors draw on the Greek nationalist ideologies of folkloric cultural continuity and aestheticism, as well as the discourse of science, in order to negotiate Cretan food in ways that resist modern sensibilities. An examination of their intersections with American cookbooks makes even clearer the contested nature of such discourses, and indicates that a degree of Crete's local agricultural and foodways autonomy might be at stake in these texts.
